Special Legislation Doomed.

The State Senate has taken a long step forward in the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment prohibiting all special legislation. There is no subject upon which the people have manifested a more earnest and united feeling than this, and the Senate has done well to recognize this popular expression and give its emphatic sanction to the principle of general legislation. This Amendment, with others, will shortly go to the House, where there is every reason to believe that it will be promptly agreed to, though some effort will be made by persons of a certain class to defeat it. The Amendment, as agreed upon by the Senate, reads as follows:

The legislature shall not pass private, local or special laws in any of the following enumerated cases, that is to say:

Laying out, opening, altering and working roads or highways.

Vacating any road, town plot, street, alley or public grounds.

Regulating the internal affairs of towns and counties; appointing local offices or commissions to regulate municipal affairs.

Selecting, drawing, summoning or empaneling grand or petit jurors.

Creating, increasing or decreasing the per centage or allowance of public officers during the term for which said officers were elected or appointed.

Changing the law of descent.

Granting to any corporation, association or individual any exclusive immunity or franchise whatever.

Granting to any corporation, association or individual the right to lay down railroad tracks.

Providing for changes of venue in civil or criminal cases.

Providing for the management and support of free public schools.

The Legislature shall pass general laws providing for the cases enumerated in this paragraph, and for all other cases, which, in its judgment, may be provided for by general laws. The Legislature shall pass no special act conferring corporate powers, but they shall pass general laws under which corporations may be organized and corporate powers of every nature obtained, subject, nevertheless, to repeal or alteration at the will of the Legislature.

The vigorous support given to the above Amendment by Senator Taylor, of this county, was largely influential in determining the final adoption of all the propositions which it embodies. To some of these propositions, objection was made by other Senators, but Mr. Taylor took the ground that the Legislature could not go too far or do too much in the direction of extinguishing the evils of special legislation, and his arguments in every case won a decided majority of the Senate to his side—so that every proposition, except that prohibiting special laws as to the rates of interest (which he strongly opposed), was agreed to just as it came from the Constitutional Commission. Newark Courier.

A Last Man Society.

The Philadelphia Press of a recent date says: In the year 1856 an organization was formed in this city composed of thirty-three membsrs, all printers, and known as the "Last Man Brotherhood," adopted doubtless from the effecting dramatic story, in which the sole survivor, overcome by emotion as he surveyed the vacant chairs and silent room, ate his last sad, solitary meal, fell on the floor and died! On the third Saturday of February in every year the members gather together at the house of one of their number. Nearly every year another is added to the vacant seats, until now there are fifteen. As years roll on these will multiply, until the ranks are so thinned be the insatiate archer that the fleeting and transitory nature of time, and the rapid approach of eternity, will be impressively felt by the small remaining band. The nineteenth annual meeting and supper was held on Saturday afternoon at five o'clock, at the residence of one of the members, on Spring Garden street, below Tenth. After all the business had been transacted the brotherhood sat down to a fine banquet. Around a large table thirty-three chairs were placed, and in front of those seats whose former occupants had died during the past year large bouquets had been placed, and were afterwards presented to the nearest relative of the departed. The evening was passed in social enjoyment, speeches, toasts, recitations, and extracts from interesting books.

The secretary records every word uttered, in a book kept for that purpose, and this is to be left to the "last man." The same bottle of sherry wine that was presented to the brotherhood eighteen years ago was again placed on the table Saturday, and will remain on the festive board until the survivor of the brotherhood takes his meal alone. He will then be required to drink the health seperately of all his former companions. When the hour of twelve arrived the members arose, joined hands in a circle, and sang their annual parting song, "Auld Lang Syne." The members then departed to their homes impressed with the solemnity of the occasion. Those who joined the organization in 1859 were or had been employed as printers, but now they are scattered in every conceivable direction. They, however, managed to participate in the annual supper.

"SWEET BELLS JANGLED."—At a recent fashionable wedding in Boston it was announced that the ceremony would take place in the church at half-past seven o'clock in the evening. A well-known musical gentleman was requested to preside at the organ, and, at the time appointed opening the service with the "Wedding March." The church was filled with a large audience, but the wedding party was late. The organist played the "Wedding March" through twice, as a prelude. By the time the church bell had tolled eight strokes, he had gone through the limited repertory of music appropriate to such an occasion, had executed a number of sacred airs in a style so rapid and novel that few, if any in the audience recognized them, and finally in despair, played the "Dead March in Saul," with variations of an exceedingly original nature. Still there were no signs of the wedding party, and the organist, thoroughly vexed at the delay, began and played a few measures of the air, "O, dear, what can the matter be?" and closed his introduction with the "Rogue's March," to the movement of which the party, which had in the meantime arrived, passed up the broad aisle to the altar.

WAKEFULNESS FROM OVERWORK.—A symptom of mental exhaustion, indicative of a very good degree of mental strain, is persistent wakefulness. The physiological cause of this condition is well understood. During excessive labor of the brain there is an increased flow of blood to the working organ; the vessels of the head and neck become distended with blood, as is shown by the flushing of the face. If this condition of destension is long continued, the vessels are apt to lose the power of contracting when mental activity is diminished. Hence arises the impossibility of sleep, the most important of which is the diminution of the flow of vital fluid to the brain. Some extraordinary instances have been recorded of prolonged wakefulness as a result of mental overstrain.

Iron in the Blood
PERUVIAN SYRUP
AN IRON TONIC
MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.
The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.
This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.
Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.
See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
